I just found out the sad news. What a shocker. Jeff was one of the brightest students. In class he excelled. Not only was he a great student but a great person. He loved school and his work. Peddinghaus and everyone that knew Jeff will miss him. Too bad he passed away so young. My deepest condolences to his family. RIP Douglas Latta (Kankakee Area Career Center drafting instructor)

Jeff came to meet me at the airport when I immigrated to the USA. Dads family is from Illinois. It was a small black car, cant remember what make, it was so long ago. I remember he produced a beer for me from the cooler, and asked me not to wave it around in case a Police officer saw it LOL!! That was Jeff. Always helping people, loved his family and kids, and his parties were legendary. I brought a bottle of Jack and toasted him with it. Jeff, if you are reading this, please give Jessica a hug and kiss on the cheek for me, miss you both. x

Jeff always had a smile for me when he would see me heading around the corner in the Engineering department. He was such an amazing person to be around. If I were having a bad day I knew I could just turn that corner in Engineering and he would have a smile for me. Jeff was a great man he will be missed more than words can say. You have my deepest sympathy's.

Jeff and Sandy were always there to help whoever needed it at the time. Such a nice couple! He was my big brothers best friend, so I always thought of him as my brother too. I told Jeff a story one time about scuba diving and he always called me " Shark bait" after that! He enjoyed all my silly email jokes as well. The last time I saw them we were at my niece's wedding and we all enjoyed sneaking Honey Jack into the church! Such a nice guy. Too soon, too soon. So sorry and sending heartfelt condolences to his family.

Jeff was an awesome guy. Met him and his father, mother, sister and brother back in the late 70s..The Mulligan family welcomed me into their home, when I became friends with Jeff's sister Pam. From that day on I was thankful for such a kind and friendly family. I see where Jeff got his kindness to other from his family. I was blessed. I seen Jeff grow into a great man. One who feel in love with his wife, Sandy. From that day forth they bloomed into an awesome couple. You could tell they were meant to be together.
Now as we go forth, we much show Sandy our thanks for sharing her special man with us. Their love will last forever.

Thank you, Sandy for sharing. Jeff will be forever in our memories, as he will forever be in your heart.

God speed, Jeff.....R.I.P.
