“ Aunt Jackie was one of the kindest, loving person I have every known. She was always happy and loved having people over. She was a great cook, loved her fur babies and always looked pristine in what she wore. My favorite times were hanging at her house on the weekend or holiday playing cards as a child, watching football and laughing. She had the best laugh and smile that would light up the room. I have thought of her so many times. God has received a great lady to the heavenly gates to be with Uncle Lou. I miss her so. She is one of a kind.
