“ Good bye, Aunt Naomi. I already miss your sweet face and gentle heart. I envy the party I know ya'll are having in Glory.

To Bob and Janet, may your hearts be comforted by the memory of this lovely woman you were so privileged to call 'Mother'. And may you be comforted by the loving hand of our Father.

“ She was a true example of a Proverbs 31 woman. She was a shining light from God to ever she came in contact with. Our prayers go out to here Family and Friends.

“An excellent wife who can find? She is far more precious than jewels. The heart of her husband trusts in her, and he will have no lack of gain. She does him good, and not harm, all the days of her life. She seeks wool and flax, and works with willing hands. She is like the ships of the merchant; she brings her food from afar. She rises while it is yet night and provides food for her household and portions for her maidens. She considers a field and buys it; with the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard. She dresses herself with strength and makes her arms strong. She perceives that her merchandise is profitable. Her lamp does not go out at night. She puts her hands to the distaff, and her hands hold the spindle. She opens her hand to the poor and reaches out her hands to the needy. She is not afraid of snow for her household, for all her household are clothed in scarlet. She makes bed coverings for herself; her clothing is fine linen and purple. Her husband is known in the gates when he sits among the elders of the land. She makes linen garments and sells them; she delivers sashes to the merchant. Strength and dignity are her clothing, and she laughs at the time to come. She opens her mouth with wisdom, and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue. She looks well to the ways of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness. Her children rise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her: "Many women have done excellently, but you surpass them all." Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised. Give her of the fruit of her hands, and let her works praise her in the gates.”

“ Muriel Baker sent a virtual gift in memory of Naomi R. Cullins

“ Dear Naomi, the specific image of grace & beauty, inside & out. She was always sweet & kind to all I loved her because she loved me she told me so and one time a long time ago she told me that I had a handsome husband. She liked to hear him teach when he could.

She was a quiet witness of a loving Christian to all around her and to her Saviour. Even though she was a quiet church member , she will be remembered by all in her Sunday School (Mark Johnsons) class. Naomi, say hello to Bill for me and tell him "look for me for I will be there to"

Blessings
