“ Ardis was a good neighbor and regular library patron. She will be missed in her regular spot on the sofa reading the newspapers.

“ My husband and I live in Village Green subdivision just past Ms. Peterson's home. Over the past thirty years of living near, we often saw her out and about taking care of her flowers and her property, and she always had a wave as we passed. God has gained a wonderful gardener for His beautiful home. Rest in peace Ms. Peterson.

“ Ardis sold me many cookbooks thru the years that she sold books, stopped at my folk's welding store on Court Street and would always show me books that she thought I would like. Such a quiet lady.

“ My Father was LaVern Miller, a first cousin to Pearl, Mother of Ardis. and Mom was Pearl's best friend. Many, many times, we would cruise up and down the roads of Limestone Township talking about old times! They will always be a part of my cherished memories.
