“ Brian was a good friend, and will be missed by all.
We will have a toast to Brian around the campfire at our yearly fishing trip
Brian always had a good toast or a smart ass comment to share.
Here's to you Brain

“ Sucha kindhearted guy, who always knew the right thing to say to make you feel better, even if that something was a smart ass comment which he has most certainly passed down to his Son. Oh man I wish we could go back to our camping trips just one more time in that turquoise or whatever color that old pick-up truck was. I'm so lucky that you were apart of my childhood. I'm sure missing those dimples already!
P.s. Go Cubs...❤️ you man!

Brian and I didn't really get close until High School and after. He was a great friend and a blessing to have as a family member. He could harass me to no end and constantly tease me for being just a few months older than him. But then I would look at his salt and pepper hair and raise an eyebrow. He always made me smile and I will never forget that grin of his. I will miss you very much Cuz.

“ Brian was a good friend to me in Grade School and High School. The only Snowmobile I ever rode in my life was with Brian. We played Football together for many years. I was a nose guard and linebacker, they never let me play offence. Brian was a Lineman on both sides of the ball and never came off the field. He may have also played linebacker too, he did have some speed for his size. Our senior year in High school. We were BAD, So Bad we Lost Every game. Near the end of the year they decided to put the toughest and meanest player on the team ( Brian ) in as a running back. Well this was all fine and good for the Games. and quite frankly I do not remember how many carries he got. I do however remember the scrimmages with him running the ball, and me . Id tell you right now, and be very proud of it if I ever tackled him, but I did not. EVER. I wrestled for many years, later I got into fighting. I can honestly say I have wrestled with and fought some of the VERY BEST in both Sports. I can also honestly say, NONE OF IT Ever felt as bad as Trying to Tackle SADLER.

My condolences to his family and his close friends

“ I'm one of countless people from high school who were so very saddened to hear of Brian's passing. I hadn't seen him in many years, but the things I remember about him are infectious laughter and such a kind spirit. Brian had a way of taking a person under his wing and it felt like you had a big brother for life. Thanks for always being such a nice person Bri. You went much too soon. Your family is in my prayers. God bless old friend.

“ I remember a time when I was young going out to the farm and Brian giving us little kids rides in the open jeep, we had a blast and Brian was such a good sport. I'll never forget Brian's smile and laugh, it was infectious! Please accept my deepest sympathy – you are all in my thoughts and prayers.

Love,
