“ Flo and Sherwood named her Candy. And true to her name, she remained perhaps the sweetest person I've ever known. Don and Tim, I think it just goes to show that such sincere sweetness has affected so many people. I hope that you can combine that fact with your Faith in forging through the days ahead of you.

For all of you, Candy's family members, I offer a wish and a prayer and the simple thought: Candy was love. Therefore: Candy is love, because love never dies!

Sincerely, Cousin, Joe K
