“ I am so sorry to see the obituary of your mom, I remember a lot of good times at your house. your mom and dad were very special letting me hang around the house as much as I did. I remember one time Jim and I went frog hunting and came back to the house with the back of his el camino full of frogs. Jim cleaned them then we went inside to fry them up. When the first one started to fry and then jumped around in the pan I had no idea what was going on. Grandma came in and asked us what we were doing and Jim told her. We fried up a great big platter of frog legs and your mom came in with something , then Liz came in with something and the next thing you know we had dinner. it was great. Thank you for watching out for a naive teenager who didn't know a lot.
