“ Joyce, I was so sorry to read about the loss of your mother. I know she was a huge part of your everyday world. I hope you are finding ways to ease the void and the pain. Nothing will ever replace a mom and never should. I hope the Lord helps you through this difficult time of adjusting to a new normal. You have my thoughts and prayers.

“ Richard and Joyce, having lost my mother, I know the heartache you must be going through. I remember how kind your mother always was to me whenever I came over to your house on Euclid. Please accept my deepest condolences.
