Very sorry you have suffered this loss. It's never easy saying goodbye before you are ready.

Bob W - April 14, 2021 at 08:10 AM

My sister loved pansies, violets , (just like grandma) succulents and plants her favorite color recently was purple. She loved to watch the birds outside her window and often thought of Grandma Mary. She drew beautiful chalk and pencil drawings and love to paint. She enjoyed reading and teaching was always in her. She was very wise beyond her years. She loved to share what her daughter and grandchildren were doing and always asked about everyone. During covid she drew pics on greeting cards and shared them with staff and residents to spread hope. She would talk about many staff members at several nursing homes that she loved. Her eyes would light up like it was Christmas and had a beautiful smile whenever you visited. She always found a token of her love to give you when you visited. Cheri would want me to tell everyone thank you for all the heartfelt prayers and caring for her. Others were always first and foremost on her heart and asked for very little in return. In my eyes she will continue to be an Angel for all of us and for residents. She has left a huge whole in our hearts but so grateful she is not suffering anymore and that she loved the Lord.

Peace be with you dear sister , until we embrace again!!!
