“ Always a good time when we were together. I'll miss grilling, watching TV, playing games, and blaring music so loud the neighbors heard it. There was always good food when we were around. He taught me how to drive as well. A few days before I left for basic training when I joined the military. I stayed with Clyde. I was having trouble sleeping and he made me peppermint tea with honey and talked to me til I finally slept. I have so many more great memories with Clyde. He will be dearly missed. I can't wait to walk the streets of heaven with you my friend. You will be dearly missed.
