“ Clayton and I so treasure our visits with Connie and Deanna on our trips back to Illinois, sharing great humor, wonderful stories, and that no-nonsense practicality that was her trademark. To see how her family cherishes her is a testament to the wonderful light she was, and her devotion to those she loved. I know that light still shines brightly in the hearts of all who love her. May God wrap his loving arms around those who grieve her loss and cherish her beautiful memory.
