“ Being Danny's younger sister was sometimes a challenge. He always wanted to check out the guys I dated to make sure they met his approval. He was a little over protective, but that was the way he was. Danny was a joker, and was all about family. He was always there when anyone needed anything, and was the most generous man I know. He will be missed by his family, but I know he is with mom, dad and Virginia. I could not have asked for a better brother. Until we see each other again! Please pray for the family left behind as we will be praying for all of you. Love you always and forever!
