“ I remember uncle Sonny always had a welcoming smile, to me, he was so kind and seemed to care about others, he did not have a selfish bone in his body. I always got a sense of positivity when I would see Uncle Sonny and Aunt Sharon at Coyote Canyon every Wednesday afternoon for lunch. I miss that. I will miss U. My deepest sympathy goes out to you Sharon and especially David, Cathy(infinity Anchors), Jason, and Kevin.
Love, Tracy (Orwig) Dionne

“ You got me good one night fishing down at Birds Park..You would use those bells at night and you let me use one..My pole was on the other side of the building and you rang one of those bells and I thought I got a fish...I run to check my pole and you and Tony (my husband) was laughing so hard.. Thank you for all the fun memories from fishing to just playing cards..RIP Dave
