“ I just saw that Davine passed in the latest Bishop McNamara newsletter. Very sorry for your loss. Davine was a neighborhood "buddy" in Gracefield when we were kids...playing kick the can, flashlight tag and all those other fun things we did. I think we saw each other at one of the reunions too. Very sad to hear this and my thoughts are with her family. RIP Davine...

“ I knew Davine from the day we moved to Kankakee in 1970 on Vanmeter. We were even boyfriend and girlfriend for a year or so. She broke up with me because she said I liked my new 10 speed bike more than her. We saw each other off and on over the years and always had a good laugh about the Gracefield days. Thoughts and prayers are with her family and peace be with her.

“ I did not know Davine all that long. I work at Lowes, and she was a customer. We began talking during one of her visits, and I found out that like me, she was being treated for cancer. Well, that changed the whole dynamic of our interaction. We saw each other at Chemo treatment and talked and offered each other words of encouragement.

She was a strong dynamic individual, and my life was enhanced by knowing her. I am so sorry to hear of her passing, and I hope that her loved ones are able to find some type of comfort in this time of reflection. I will remember for the rest of my life.

We enjoyed her laughter, support and her firm commitment to everyone she met. Motorcycling around the country was a good time as well as working with her. She will be missed. God Bless.

I was a sewing friend of Davines. We attended classes to learn to sew 18" doll clothes, she for her granddaughters, and I for my great-granddaughter. I enjoyed her company, she was so energetic and just fun to talk to.

I will greatly miss her presence and her fun-loving banter at our sewing classes.
