“ So many memories of Aunt Donna. Always looked forward to visits from her, Uncle Bob, Bobby & Susan. Everyone always said I favored her and when Dad was sick, he called me Donna Lucille. The best compliment I could ever receive. What a grand reunion she is having. Will always remember her smile, it was just like Dad's.

My dear cousin Dawna, Bob and I grew up together. She was my favorite "girl" cousin and we had so many good times together. A few years ago, I was passing through Kankakee and spent the night with her, and also visit Bob who, unfortunately, was in the hospital at that time. We all had such a fun time reminiscing. I shall miss her

It is not very often I comment on how good one looks at the funeral home but Dawna looked so peaceful yesterday. I have been visiting her for many years through her illness and watched her go down hill. When I saw her yesterday I felt so at peace for her. Good job kids, you had an angel for a mother and I had an angel for a friend. A friend sent me this Winnie the Pooh quote which sums her up, "If there ever comes a day when we can't be together, keep me in you heart, I will stay forever". That about sums our relationship up.
