“ Austin, I was so sorry to hear about the death of your father. I have two Kindergarten memories of him. When it was your week to bring snacks, he walked into our room with two large grocery bags full of food-he reminded me of Santa Claus with the big grin he had on his face. Your friends were so excited because he brought enough stuff to feed us for weeks! Also, I remember that he volunteered to come in and share his career as a correctional officer with us. He brought along crayons and coloring books from the sheriff's office-Santa once again! He assured us that once the police catch the bad guys, he'll keep them locked up so we're safe. A very comforting message for all of us. God be with you in your time of loss. He was a great man who will be missed by many.
