“ Dear Bruce, Laura, Donna and Johnny - please accept my belated condolences and sympathy. I live in another state and just learned about Dolores' death. Your parents were terrific neighbors who never hesitated to help. I will always remember their generosity and good humor. I was very lucky to have met them. Danguole

“ Just saying hello and condolences to Laura and Johnny Croix. Today is 8/19/23. I remembered them as I was reminiscing about my time at St Anthony's Hospital in Denver. I worked with them there in the early 90's. Perchance one of them will visit their mom's 3 yr old guest book here on this site and think of me. So Sorry for the loss of your mom. I find it ironic I found Dolores' funeral info nearly 3 years to the date of her passing. When I saw your mom's photo- I saw John's smile in hers. 😊 Most definitely.

“ Growing up as the best friend of her son Jeff, Delores was like a second mother to me. I was always over at the Croix house. I can still picture the house on Campbell Street in Gage Park. Good memories. Better times in many ways. Despite having moved away from Chicago many years ago I tried to call Delores once or twice a year to catch up on the comings and goings of her "clan". She and Mr. Croix left quite a legacy. To your entire family my deepest sympathies. Larry Springer, now living in North Carolina

“ Sorry to have learned so late of Dolores' passing, this year. She was always remembered in my Sunday mass blessings. She and my cousin Tom were wonderful people to know. Please accept my sincere condolences.

“ Always an Italian beef sandwich when we would visit Delores and Tom in Chicago! Our daughters met at George Williams College and quickly became friends. Our visits to their Chicago neighborhood were as much of an education as Laura's visit to rural Indiana were an education for her. And even more important, Delores came with her sometimes! Stories about their family gave us many opportunities for laughs--a drive Delores made through the back of the garage, the tomato plants she prized and all of the other stories we will remember, We will keep her memory alive by sharing our stories. Bless all of the family.
