“ Doug was a gentle soul. I have know him for over 20 years. He was my co-worker and my boss at the Daily Journal for many years. I would see him in Mario's stocking shelves and we always talked. He had a laugh that was one of a kind and I can hear that laugh right now as I'm writing this. He LOVED his Chicago Blackhawks. He was a very good person that went to Heaven way too soon! He will be missed! RIP Doug until we meet again my friend.
