“ Bonnie, So sorry to hear of Aunt Ersell's passing. She was still writing me, I was concerned when she didn't send a Christmas card. She was the only one on dads side of the family to keep communication going! Got such a kick out of her pictures with Santa! Will miss talking with her....Dixie Ernestine (Hathcock) Young “ Ersell and I had many hours sitting and quilting together, both on our own projects. Pleasant conversations going on. She also taught me more about crocheting. She was such a lovely person and I will dearly miss our visits together. May God bless her family and friends.

“ One day Ersell asked me to help with her sewing machine and the thread because she wasn't able to see clearly to complete this herself. I told Ersell I had no idea what to do with a sewing machine. She just chuckled. She had told me she would teach me to quilt. I wish I could have taken her up on her offer. I enjoyed having talks with her or even just sitting in silence. She will be missed. Prayers and peace be with your family.
