“ Evelyn was a special woman, always went to church on Saturday evening, and always had a smile on her face. The last time I saw her at the Heritage Home, she said that she was content, which is another word for being happy. With some dementia taking over, she could not remember who I was, but she said that I look like someone that she really likes. Well, I was her pastor at Saint Teresa for five years, and never failed to embrace her and talk to her after mass. She will be missed! Rest in peace, Evelyn! God bless your soul with joy!

“ Evelyn enjoyed many kinds of dance. I met her at KCCSI line dancing class on Tues. mornings with Beryl teaching us. This was in spring of 2005. Later I saw her at St. Teresa Church and we became more friendly. She enjoyed her cats and spoke of them at dance class. We talked about driving and went to some instruction in Rules of the Road, together a few times. Please accept our sympathies. Hugs and prayers, Georgene
