“ Florence "Lois" Farthing

“ Lois was the baby sister of my father Ray Larson. I remember her as always bubbly and loving. My brother Dale was the ring bearer at her wedding to Howard Farthing. At that time they lived in an upstairs apartment on N Dixie Highway in Momence. Later when Howard was in the US Air Force they lived in Arizona. I believe Lois had a horse there. She loved horses.

I visited her on a surprise trip last year when she was in the nursing home. I shared with her pictures of the Larson family from the past that I had gathered together. My favorite was a picture of her and Blondie as little girls.

We the Larson side of the family loved her and will miss her dearly.

I first met Lois Farthing when I was in Arizona with my husband several years ago. I immediately knew this was a very lovely person. A beautiful woman, with sparkling eyes, and a very good sense of humor. The smile of an angel.

There I also met her son Jeff. You could see the love she had for her children.

When informed that Lois passed, I was very sad. She will be missed dearly. The first thing I said to my husband was that now she can be eternally with Jeff and Howard.

We could not attend the showing of this special lady as we had just gotten in to Arizona for two weeks of babysitting.

Sorry we missed this Tanya. I know you will understand.
