“ I have way to many memories to share, but this one time when I was 14. I went to the bar with him, he was to drunk to drive us home. So i had to, they was a cop setting at a light on 115. I was so afraid i was going to get pulled over.

“ Many years ago Gary was more then a friend, like family. We were walking n Kankakee Illinois. He walked out of his shoes n keep walking. When we got back there he just walked back n them. He made me laugh so much. R. I. P. Gary. I'm sending you love.

“ The memories I have are endless. One that stands out is a fishing night where we were along the Kankakee river. He and I, I believe Uncle Ronnie, and I think Mike Hartley. As we were drinking it up, and smoking, Gary got a bite on his pole, and before he could grab it, it shot into the river....I just about died laughing. An hour or so later, I had a bite, set the hook. As I reeled in the fish, I seen my hook caught on a line. Jumped in the river, drug in his pole...which was brand new. He said, "hey, you got my pole!"....
