“ Rest peacefully, sweet Geri. It was such a pleasure to have you as a working “buddy” all those years ago at that law office in the Arcade Building. Your smile could light up a room and I’m sure your star will brighten the skies.

“ Geri was such a lovely lady. It was my pleasure to know her and her family when she was at Our Lady of Victory. She had a lot of spunk and humor. Whenever I saw her, whether in the dining room, the hallway, or at the reception desk she'd take my hand. We'd chat and she'd always tell me how glad she was to see me. I'll miss her. I'm happy she and Frank are together once again.
