“ Grace and I taught together for many years, beginning when Eastridge opened in 1966. She was a dear friend and fellow church member. I was privileged to continue visiting her and David at Westwood, and then Grace at Butterfield. She was always so very appreciative when I went, and enjoyed the homemade treats I sometimes took. I shall truly miss her, but know in heaven her physical problems are over.

Hi, Miss Neal. I had you for Spanish at Eastridge. In college I majored in Spanish and minored in Business. My shorthand from Mrs. Dickson helped me taking notes in college and also in the workplace. I'm glad you enjoyed your friendship with her.

“ Sad to hear this news. She taught me to type back at Eastridge High. I think it is her will the got me to do well in her class but I have often thought about those days in her class and how I carry those lessons into my adulthood, and so many aspects of my business and now I teach my kids in the same way that she taught us.

“ Grace and David were two of the nicest people you could ever meet. I knew them through church, Eastridge and later was honored to be their attorney for many years and always enjoyed visiting with her. She kept up on periodicals well into her 90s. Rest In Peace.
