“ Gregg, sweetie, I just found out you died. I'm stunned and shocked. I wish I would have known, I in respect to you would have sent flowers. Thank you so much for your laughter, love, Marvel, being my friend.. I been missing your voice that deep drawl and your laughter.. all out talks about cars. Your with your sweet Tammy now, I know how you missed her, both together again, and happy. I'll always miss your level headed, intelligent. love and miss forever 😭

“ I wanted to send my condolences to Greg's family. My favorite memory of Greg and my other cousins was the family reunions at Uncle Elwood and Aunt Joan's house. They were and all day event topping off with a baseball game. Needless to say the cousin's (and most of the uncles) were in a very good mood when we started. There was a LOT of laughter and good natured ribbing. The ribbing in my case was to see if I could run without jiggling, if I was actually able to hit a ball. The day was made for me. Greg's quiet smile and sweet nature will be missed. Jackie (Kelly) Crain
