Harley worked for Caterpillar for over 20 yrs. He later worked for Schwan's Ice Cream as a manager and won many awards.

Harley loved to tell jokes and people would believe they were true stories until they realized it was a joke .He loved to keep them in suspense.

He retired and loved his little dogs, Machee, a Maltipoo died a few years ago. Harley missed him terribly. He then got another Maltipoo, KaGee. He loved her and she loved him. She misses him so much and looks for him every day.

Harley was tormented with lung and heart disease. His mind was very troubled. The Limestone Fire Dept. and Kankakee Police were called many times. They were so good to come and help him. God Bless Them.

Harley Prayed with his wife Pam a few weeks ago and asked Jesus in his heart. He was able to think right and wanted to know he would go to Heaven. A few days before he died he called Pam, his wife, over to his bed. He said, "Come and See...Come and See". He repeated it over and over.
