“ To know Iris, was to love her. She was a dear friend of my mother, Frances Schierholz. I have a sweet memory of taking my mom over to visit Iris at her apartment about 6 years ago. Throughout the years, from nurses training, raising their families, their nursing careers and vacationing together in retirement, they remained true friends. Iris will be missed by so many. prayers for Bob, Jim, Ann and their families. Trisha Campbell

“ I just happened to view the obituaries from the Daily Journal in my hometown of Kanakakee to see my mom's friend Iris. Iris was my mom's best friend in nurses training. Reva (Ditzler) Hebert, my mom, and Iris shared a room while in school at St. Mary's. I was only about 5 or 6 years old when we would visit the Faffords, as families did back then. My older siblings have more memories of playing with the Fafford children. In my mind's eye I still have a vivid picture of Iris and Aidie. So many times in my teenage years, when my head was wrapped in a towel from having just washed my hair, my mom would tell me how much I reminded her of Iris when they were roommates. I could tell by her expression how much she loved her friend, Iris. My mom, who passed away in 2005, will be greeting Iris in heaven. I miss my mom and she would be happy to know I shared this memory with you. May all Iris' family find comfort at this most difficult.
