“ Learning six years after the fact of Jim's passing does not lessen my sadness of knowing my best U. S. Army buddy is now gone. He was a true friend and loyal companion for the challenging two years that we shared the highs and lows of Army life with the 16th Arty. in Western Germany in the early 60's. The happy days, particularly, of our leave together in Spain, and the more serious nights we spent on alert in the "field" during the Berlin Crises will always be remembered, as will the privilege and elation of having attended his wedding about two years after our discharges from active military service. I regret that we lost touch as time and distance came between us while we raised families and pursued our separate civilian professions, but I've thought of Jim often over the years and will, no doubt, continue to do so; his friendship will always be remembered.

“ So sorry to hear this sad news. Worked with Jim at ASW for 25 years. Learned so much from him that I took with me in my career in supervision. He knew how to handle the troops as well as anyone. He will forever be in my memories. Rest in peace Jim you were one of the best.

“ Jim was the kind of neighbor that you always looked forward to seeing. His breakfast club have missed him and he was such a fun person, with a great sense of humor. Bob and I will miss our many visits on the porch but we are comforted that Jim is not longer in any pain or suffering. Our prayers are for his family and we are still blessed to have Sharon as our neighbor! Many prayers and Jim you are missed but will remain in our hearts forever.

“ I have so many memories of Jim I don't know where to start. I respected the fact that he was a man of his word and did everything in his power, and then some, for his family. He made me feel welcome from the first time we met. I would bet that he's having dinner with God right now telling him "come on, you can eat more than that. Have another plate, there's plenty of food".... May God hold him in his arms and keep him warm. He will be forever in my heart.

“ Jim was many things to many people he touched so many peoples lives in various ways. I'm so thankful for knowing such a fine Man Jim was the Bob Hope of ASW always entertaining the troops. He didn't really know shit about making wire in the grand scheme of things...but as it turned out he knew so much more about soooo many other things that helped so many young men's lives over the years. I'll never forget the story he loved to tell so many times..."he sees a small crowd in front of the cleaning house maintenance working on the crane imagine that right...so Chuckie Cheese is there Duda's up on the crane working patches is there and a few others. Dad walks up to Tom Green aka patches he's standing there arms folded across his chest staring up at Duda working with that glazed over look acting all important and all...Davis taps green on the shoulder and says go ahead Tom go take a break I got this. So he takes his normal stance feet 2 feet apart butt sticking out his little pot belly jutting out he hikes his pants up crosses his arms across his chest and looks up at Duda working on the crane!! By now the crowd is double and everyone is watching Jim's act just laughing their a butts off!! Loved the guy and will forever remember him... may you R.I.P. Jim!!
