“ Jim will be missed. He was a friend with a heart of gold. Everyday, without fail at 2pm Id have a fresh pot of coffee waiting for him. He was a genuine, caring man. He came by my house just to make sure I was ok cause he hadnt seen me at work. Jim will be greatly missed. My prayer to his family

“ I will always remember Jim from all the auctions we attended together and the thousands of cups of coffee we had over the years. He was also a man of knowledge and was always there for me if I needed him. He was a true pillar in the community. He will be terribly missed. Rest in peace buddy.

“ My condolences to the Dluzak family. I always enjoyed seeing Jim and Judy. They are two of the greatest people I have had the pleasure of meeting. I always looked forward to seeing them on the weekends when Diane and I would visit them. Jim and I would always have some good discussions before I went home. God bless you both, you are now together again in heven. ❤️
