“ Jim and I lived within a couple blocks of each other and walked nine blocks one way daily to St Patrick grade school, in the sun, the rain, and the snow. We also attended St Patrick Central High School together. Jim was remembered as a best friend who was a very kind, gentle, and patient person who never rose to anger and could always be depended on. Jim was my Groomsman at our wedding. Jim was my hunting and fishing buddy during these school years. I remember going Pheasant hunting with Jim, his brother Frank, and their Father, Henry in Henry's very large Green Buick. I will be missing the memories of my buddy, and his sage advice! Theresa and I wish to express sincere Condolences to David and Jeff, and their families.

When I think about Uncle Jim I can't help but smile. He was always so sweet to me. I have never seen him angry. He was one of the nicest guys you'd ever know!! I grew up watching him share good times with my Dad, John Trost, his brother Frank and the many friends they all ran with from our little neighborhood group, there in Kankakee. Uncle Jim was the kind of guy you could count on. I remember him and Frank driving the big Trucks and watching them spread asphalt from the side of the road when we're kids. Thinking how COOL MY UNCLES ARE!!! I'll miss his face at the family get togethers and our Facebook conversations but mostly his kind hugs whenever I seen him!! Love, thoughts and prayers for my cousins and the families. Let my Uncle Jim Rest In Peace. Lots of LOVE to all and I'm sorry I can't be there to help lay him to rest. I'll Miss him so much Angie and Family in Missouri

“ Jim and I attended both grade- and high schools together. Jim is remembered by me as a quiet man, a good man, who had the self-confidence to follow his own best instincts, not those of the crowd. I extend my genuine sympathies to his sons, Jeff and David, and their families. Your dad was a good man.
