“ My most sincere condolences to the family on the passing away of your loved one. true comfort comes in knowing that death does not come from God. For He (God), promises to do away with death forever.(Heb 2:14; Isaiah 25:8)

“ When I was growing up in the 50's the Denault family was a fixture on the corner of 3rd & VanMeter, just down the street from my house. Duane was closest to my age but I remember most if not all of the other kids, & they were a great close knit family. Jean gave me EEG testing many years ago and we were able to reminisce about the old neighborhood, it was so nice see & talk to her again, she was a nice lady who will be missed by her family & friends.

“ My dear, dear friends , how my heart aches at the loss of my dearest friend and sis. the void in my heart is so vast, no words will ever explain , what she was to me and my husband Dave. When I needed a guardian angel , to watch over me in the darkest moments in my life , God sent me Jean Pollo and from that day forward , she was and always remain in my heart. I am so sorry I am not there for all of you the way she was for me, but living in Canada , so far away .it is impossible. i love you all , and if it were possible , I would be there. She has gone to a place where no pain and suffering will hurt anymore. I know in my heart she will meet my son Daniel , and because of him , my Jean came to me. Please know that we are hurting along side of you all .Accept our sincere and deep ""condolences"" . We will remember Jean, as we shared so much. Have faith and courage that we will all meet again someday . Rest well my beloved friend Jean , I will miss you so much , and will never forget you . God Bless and watch over you all as you face the hard days ahead, and I walk with you. Jeannine (your Canadian sis) forever in my heart and Dave your Canadin friend as well.As you would say to me , I will kick your ""Butt"" for leaving us. Adieu my friend till we meet again.
