“ So very very sorry to get this news today, I am so sad that I did not know about this at the time because I most certainly would have come to the visitation and funeral. What a sweet lady Jenny was, so very sorry for your loss. Richard and I have always treasured Jenny and Danny's friendships over the many years we have known them. Now Jenny and Richard can rejoice together in Heaven while they look down over us. May God bless you all in your time of grief, Jenny will be greatly missed.

“ Oh so very sorry to receive this news, sorry for the late response, just now got Danny's message on my home phone. Jenny and Danny were very kind friends to my parents, Richard and Doris Olson. I remember what a kind lady Jenny was to my family, and remember lots of fun times spent out at their home in Monmouth while they lived there. . Specifically remember getting a bunny rabbit from them to have as a pet for the summer when I was a kid, from their rabbit cages and also falling out of one of their very tall tress in their backyard. My sympathy goes out to Danny and the boys, praying for God's comfort for you at this very difficult time. May God bless you with fond memories of time spent with your wife/mom!

“ I worked with Jennie in the mortgage department at First Trust & Savings Bank downtown for a couple years during the mid 90's. She was a sweet lady with a very strong backbone. She introduced me to Mancino's, and every time I have a club sandwich from Mancino's, it takes me back to the time I worked with her. So sorry for your loss. Heaven definitely gained an angel.

“ Jenny was a very kind and caring lady! She was a joy to work with and always had a smile on her face. I remember how much she enjoyed her family, her church, yard, scrap booking and craft shows.

Heaven found a new Angel today!!
