“ I'll never forget when I learned to swim in your pool and you said, "That's right! You make sure you tell your Pawpaw you learned how to swim at MY house!" You had nothing but kind words and a smile for us kids everytime we saw you. Wish I would've known you as an adult so I could get some of that wisdom from ya. Rest easy "Grandma" Joan ❤️

“ I can remember when I came into Genes place for the 1st. Time. I thought it was for my surprise birthday party. (1986) but Gene wanted to work for him. So that was the nite I meet you for the 1st. Time. And I started that nite, you were so nice to me. You teased me because I wiped all the ash trays every time they put out a cig. We worked together for 3 yrs. and I got to say I loved you as if you were my own ma. RIP we will meet again.

“ It was because of Joanie, that when I decided to quit drinking it worked, she asked if I was sure and I said yep, so anytime someone would buy the house a round I would get my Pepsi. I am so honored she was a friend to me and her kids too!
