“ I have wonderful memories of Joann & Darwin coming to Sarasota several times in their RV in the 80's. They enjoyed Siesta Key Beach and we always got together and went to Walt's Fish Market Restaurant. We ate and talked and laughed and Joann was always the life of the party. Joann and my Mother, Doris enjoyed each other's company as well. Rest in peace Joann, you will always be remembered fondly. Alise Angel, Barbara's sister-in-law

“ My mother (Alice Campbell) and grandmother were good friends of JoAnn's mother, Marion Blackmore. I remember one Christmas Eve when Marion brought JoAnn over to my grandmother's (Cora Keen) to visit us while Santa Claus came to their house I am 94 years old. I remember Marion too when she worked in the old First Trust Bank on South Schuyler Ave.....I worked for another lawyer on the same floor.

My condolences to JoAnn's family.
