“ Aunt Jolan was a remarkable lady. She visited me at my home for several days in the early 2000s and my young children got a chance to get to know her, or at least she got a chance to know them. We even drove up to Traverse City together so that she could have lunch with her childhood friends as well as to touch base with my grandmother, her cousin's wife Eleanor. .Aunt Jolan was the inspiration behind my genealogy hobby, and was instrumental in providing the first glimpses of my Csolkovits family line. I always looked forward to her packages of information and photos of the family memories that she collected.

She was so good at keeping in touch, over the years she made the effort to reach out to my relatives to get together for lunch when she came to visit us in the Chicago area. I am sad that she is gone and that I was not more a part of her life. My condolences to her nieces and nephews for the loss of Aunt Jolan as well as for the loss of their own mother and grandmother Margaret who left us earlier this year.

“ I worked with Jo for years when I worked for the state of Illinois (DMH) and she worked for Public Aid. We had some of the same facilities and clients. She was a lovely person and a friend. I enjoyed working with her. I lost being in touch with her when she moved to Florida. I remember how hard she fought to find good nursing care for her mother. I have very good memories of her. My condolences to her family. Virginia Shrove

“ I have wonderful memories of all the visits with Ms. Jolan, while she was in care at NorthBrooke. I remember, she expressed concern for her niece going to China. Even when she was not always feeling her best, there was always a smile on her face, when I entered her room, for a wonderful visit and just good conversation.

She always wanted to look her best, even if she may have some discomfort at the moment. Ms. Jolan loved to talk about others she knew at Englewood church. I felt a special blessing to know her, and the time we spent together.

My home was blessed with cards she sent to me and my wife during the Christmas holidays.

Such a lady in every respect, and now I know she is with the Lord, and has no pain, only joy.

God bless her family in this time grief.

With Cristian love,
Sam and Faye Burns
