“ Judy mom was a kind soul. She was my other mom. I lived very far my mom but Judy mom filled that empty seat in my heart. She didn't treat me any different despite me being a Muslim. She would start a conversation with anyone who would pay attention to her. She loved tanning, going to the nail salon, travelling, and eating Chinese food. We used to go eat Chinese sometimes. She was also kind to animals. She would buy cat food and feed stray cat. I will definitely miss her. She was my hero, my other mom, my friend, and above all someone that will be greatly missed by everyone. I will see you heaven Judy mom. You definitely deserve your wings. I love you, Judy mom.

“ MR MRS lit a candle in memory of Judith M Alder

“ I have so many memories from my childhood with Judy and the family. Running around that big old house in St. Anne, playing hide and seek or with play-do with Steven. The cat clock with the moving eyes in the kitchen. Judy watching soap operas. The station wagon we would go to Kankakee in, saying hello to the smiley face in Aroma Park and I'll never forget when we we're in Bourbonnais at the junk yard and they dropped a frigging car on the wagon while we were in it. Or at least thats how I remeber it in my young mind! 😂 And Jeff always hanging out on the farm with Matt. Lots of great memories. RIP Judy my other mother we will miss you.

“ Judy has been my best friend for almost 50 years, The first 10 years of our friendship we lived almost NEXT door & saw each other every day. We raised our kids together, went camping almost every week-end & did everything together, some were a little crazy but we always had fun. After she moved we didn't see each other, sometimes for awhile, but when we did it was just like seeing each other the day before. Judy was the type of person, if you needed anything & she could help she was right there. To my Best Friend, I Love You,, Rest In peace. Love, Mona
