We are saddened by what a terrible loss this is for Luis's family including his parents, his siblings, and his daughter Emily and all of those who loved him including my niece Brittany. I remember the first time we met in Mexico You were the strangest kid I had ever met running around with your hyper ass. You introduced me to of your friends who became my friends an still see from time to time when I visit Mexico. They still ask me about you. but in time you became a great friend a friend for life. We lost touch over the years but I still thought if you often. I hope you are at peace up there with your family. Until we meet again my friend.
