“Margaret was a force of nature. She gave me love at a time in my life that was very special to both of us—first in San Francisco, where we first met in June 1973, and later back in Evanston. I saw her briefly in Prague many years later when on a family vacation, and we corresponded yearly on Facebook. I am so sorry to hear of her passing. If her brother Bob reads this, I am sending him my deepest sympathy. May her beautiful memory be for blessing and may she Rest in Peace. Goodbye Tweety.
