“ Midge was always upbeat and worked down the hall from me at BBCHS. I was not there as long as she was. If you were feeling down she was always in her office with a funny commentary on life.

“ My prayers and sympathy to the family for your loss. I remember Midge while both working at the BTPD, and my memories of her always bring me smiles. She and her friend, Dolores LaBeau, just had the best stories to share!!

May your memories bring you more laughter than tears as the years pass without this wonderful woman. God has gained a warrior by his side in Midge. May she rest in peace.

Midge influenced and inspired me to be myself by feeding my inner child. Have fun. Laugh. Pray. Play. Imagine. I am thankful to have known her my whole life. I always liked visiting Aunt Midge...especially as a little kid when I could walk to the tiny apartment on Convent Street after she and Cas married. I have visions of Midge reunited with all the family members and friends who transitioned before her. Midge is now pain free. Healthy. Whole and certainly having fun. Her spirit lives in each of us who were blessed to know her.
