“ My husband Phil went to grade school with Mark, I was in Mark's class at Mac and we were in band together. I will always remember him playing the Bugs Bunny theme song for me :) He was an amazing sax player. Mark was a good man and had the biggest smile. He was genuine. When we would see him (usually at the railroad museum) we would catch up on what we had been up to and talk about our families. He would talk about his family with so much love in his heart. Our hearts ache for you and we pray that you feel the love of God and others around as you go thru this difficult time.

“ *Bette and family,
I am so sad I can't be there to support you all. Especially today! I did find a Irish quote to share that I thought was appropriate. (Mark was Irish right? I thought he was the way he liked to party on St. Patty's day!)*

"Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal"

“ *Betty, Jake and Michael,
Cathy and I were shocked and saddened at the new of Mark's passing. Mark was a true friend. He was always pleasant and had a funny story or laugh to share. Our paths passed many times in the train/model railroad world and each time it was a positive memory.
Mark had a very good heart and always cared about the friends around him. He was also a master train modeler and expert custom painter.*

I'm going to truly miss him...being able to call and talk trains, or just stop by the Kankakee Depot on Saturdays to "shoot the bull." God Bless all of you. And may God bless my dear friend Mark. He is in Heaven now, playing trains with no health concerns. Cathy and I will miss you very much old buddy. Tom & Cathy Biscan, Manhattan IL
