“ We were not close as adults but a lot of my childhood memories involve you like playing cops and robbers or walking to the gas station or to the school I remember getting in trouble me you and Nathan for climbing on the roof of the school. I remember a lot of memories like that. Those will never be forgotten. Rest in peace my cousin.

“ I miss you already and don't know how I'll ever deal with you not here. Your personality was so huge and had a heart of gold. We had a special bond that words can not explain. You always said we were twin souls. You were my Son Friend Protector Confidant and a pain sometimes I won't lie. But I wouldn't change one single thing! I love you and take comfort that you are pain free and with the special ones who have passed before you. Sing with the Angels and watch over all of us.
