“ I remember being fascinated with all of his fish tanks upstairs in the house in Arlington Heights - I loved watching all the baby guppies. It seems like he was always working on some project. I'll never forget our weekend campouts with Aunt Darlene and Uncle Howard. Those were the good old days. Sorry I couldn't be with you all on Tuesday night - I was there in spirit. Rest in peace Uncle Melvin.

“ Melvin was in my parents wedding in 1955 and Dad's best friend in HS. they also built the huge kite in the 40's with his brother Fr. Ken. I last saw Melvin in 1980 at my Mom & Dad's 25 wedding celebration. I remember as a kid visiting Melvin, wife and kids when they lived out by the drive-in theatre. Those were the good ole days. Melvin was a very sweet man and I'm sure loved by all.
