“ To all of Millie's family, Millie was a very special lady. I so enjoyed our many years together in choir. Millie was an alto but if we were short on tenors she could sing that part if we needed another tenor. She was always a joy. With our deepest sympathy, Donna and Merlyn Witheft

“ Millie lived next door to Mom and Dad in town. Always loved seeing her when we came back on vacation. She was a dear friend and my two children got to know her too. My daughter, Cheri, told me she kind of thought of her as another grandmother. she will be missed. Prayers for you all.
