“ “ some people complain that roses have thorns, Patte was grateful that thorns have roses”. I will miss you dear sister and think of you daily. We always think there is more time but god has other plans. I will treasure brighter days when there were parties and celebrations and keep these memories in my heart. Till we see each other again. I love you and will miss you, Linda “ life isn't about waiting for the storm to pass: it's about learning to dance in the rain”

I am so glad Patte and I were able to speak just about two weeks ago. She were so upbeat and positive it didn't seem like she had been fighting cancer for so long. We had not spoken in a long time, even though I would see her posts on Facebook from time to time. I remember the last family gathering we had in 2010. It was so good to see everyone. Patte, say hello to your Mom & Dad for me. God bless you, Scott your sisters and everyone else. I love you cousin. Your pain is gone, but your memory will live on in all of us.
