“ I have only known Phil a couple years, but he was a good long time friend and neighbor to my husband, Del. As i got to know Phil , i found him to be kind and neighborly. He would call Del over when he was at the garage and they talked and did things around the place together. Del would walk in with cherries or apples or any number of things that Phil shared with us. Even his beer cans, because he knew i recycle and take scrap to the recycle places for money. He mentioned, once or more to Del that he was wanting to cut down the apple trees, because of the hassle of mowing over fallen ones. I said ..nooo! please no. And when i saw him here and there i'd say please don't cut them down. Well, last summer, than fall and early spring this year , he didn't cut the apple trees down. The trees will stand as a memory of Phil to me. I'm sad tho, that Phil isn't still here. My deepest sypathies to his family.

“ Growing up your family was my second family. I went everywhere with you all. I stayed at your house probably more than my own. One of my greatest memories was the Arkansas trip and skiing for the first time off your boat, even though I lost my swimsuit for a minute and you all laughed about it. It was the most embarrassing moment ever but the best time also. You'll be greatly missed by many Phil! Xoxo....

“ I remember one summer night when we were out front of their house, and Larry Lochner went home next door to get a pitcher of something. Uncle Phil got up on the garage roof & jumped down behind Larry. He scared Larry so bad, Larry took off running and jumped a lawn chair longways! He was always quick with a joke, fun to talk to.
