You father was a "prince" of a man. We loved him so. Rev. Hank and Holly Roso

Hello Lori and Scott, my husband and I were the neighbors behind your parents in 1971. My husband, Richard Hall, died in 1976 and our son, Jeff, loved playing on your swing set. We moved to Tucson, Arizona in the Fall of 1978. Jeff was 2 1/2 then and now a successful businessman here in Tucson. Your parents were lovely people and I continued to correspond with them until a few years after your Mother died. I was glad to find your Father's obituary and so sorry for your loss. They both would write to me about your wonderful accomplishments. They were so proud of you. God bless you and your families. Penny Hall
