

Robin Lynn Bragg

October 11, 1960 - March 26, 2022

Robin Lynn Bragg (Trepanier) of Bourbonnais entered into eternal rest on March 26, 2022.

Robin was born on October 11, 1960 to Connie Perry & Darwin Trepanier (deceased).

Robin was an exceptional mother who could not be prouder of her 3 sons. She was always involved in every life accomplishment and sporting event. She was their biggest fan. Robin's heart was bursting with love for her mother, children, grandson, sisters, niece, nephews, and great-nieces and great-nephews. She was a woman of great compassion for any person or animal who was honored to know her. Her impact on this world will continue to shine. She was everything to everyone. Robin enjoyed documenting all life's events through her home films and poetry. She was so talented in this way and they all will be treasured forever.

Robin is survived by her mother, Connie Perry; her sons, James, Travis, and Blake Bragg; her beloved grandson, Jayden Bragg, who was her world; her companion, Shannon Elsey; sisters, Becky Jostes and Brenda (Jim) Scott; nephews, Scott and Brandon; niece, Danielle; and great-nieces and great-nephew, McKenna, Ellie, and Myles.

A celebration of Life will be held Monday, April 4, 2022 at Tristar Clubhouse, located at 43 5000 N. Road, Bourbonnais, IL (corner of Route 45 and 5000 N. Road).

Memorial visitation will begin at 11:00 a.m. with a prayer service at 1:00 p.m. A luncheon will follow.

Memorials may be made to the family.

“ Robin was always good to me..like a 2nd mother..no matter what stupid shit I did she was never mad just disappointed. When I was troubled I always felt comfort and safety in her house. Food, warmth, and encouragement is all she gave, a laugh and a headshake when u were wrong. You guys know how much I love you guys..goodbye mom

“ Linda and I send our prayers to Robins sons and to Connie during this time of mourning.
A fond Aloha 'Oe to Robin. I hold on to wonderful memories of our childhood especially the happy times we spent playing at your house. May you rest in peace until we meet again.
