“ My condolences to the Trumble family. When it comes to true friendships, I couldn't have asked for a better friend. We shared so many great conversations and hearty laughs over the years which I will cherish forever. Rodney had a relentless ability to lift your spirits when you needed a boost. I miss him greatly. He will always stay close to my heart. I was truly blessed by Rodney's friendship.

May you rest in peace Rodney. I remember Rodney when I was a little kid, his family lived next door to my grandma in the 60's. He always had a joke and still, after all the years he still remembered grandma's birthday. My heartfelt condolences to the Trumble family.

*God bless you Rodney,
