“ So sorry for the Timm and Coy Family's loss. My parents used to take us to Norm's almost every Saturday morning for breakfast. We also saw the family a lot at the Sportsman's Club when we went camping. I remember getting candy from the candy counter and Ruth helping my brother and myself. Jennie (Zeedyk) Tatman

“ Ruthie was only about 4 yrs older than I was I think. I use to see her all the time when my family went to Norms to eat and Ruth started working in her mom and dads restaurant young.. I always looked forward to seeing her.. In the last several years we re-acquainted on FB. We were from the Southside, we enjoyed sharing some stories from the good old days, and the people that made the Southside unique and wonderful! RIP Ruthie!
