“ My uncle scott was such an amazing soul and full of character. I try not to dwell on the more memories that could of been made because myself and my family have endless memories with him. He was a huge part of our childhood and although a bit older, he was always entertaining us. Almost like an older brother. Whether it was play pool, going swimming, going for walks down to the creek on eagle island, playing video games, playing basketball, everything. He made us laugh countless times with his goofiness. I remember getting my license and he loved taking rides with me. He was always asking to go for rides with me or go see a movie. He loved watching the fast and furious movies as much as I did and we enjoyed watching together. I wish i could take you for one last ride and shoot one more game of pool brother. I'm sure you are up there rubbing nanas feet right now and I know you are happy to finally be with her again. Rest easy Scottina....we all love and miss you.

Josh said it perfectly. You were the greatest uncle anyone could ask for. We shared so many memories and were all three so lucky to spend our entire childhood growing up with you. Thank you for always being there for us all, no matter what. You never judged and were always so full of love and laughter. You were my best friend growing up and I am so grateful for every moment spent with you. I will never forget you, Scottie. Rest in peace buddy. I love you always. ❤️

One of the best gone too soon. Definitely wish we could have another hang day with us 3 and Scott. He was always happiest surrounded by his family and friends. So many childhood memories with you Scott. I can't say it any better than the boys did. We all loved you so much Scott, aka: Scottina. Give Nana a hug for me. Until we meet again...❤️
